* "Existing members" of GE Credit Union can refer others to become members of GE Credit Union by visiting myGECreditUnion.com ("web entry") or by filling out a Member Referral Form ("form entry"). An existing member is defined as a natural person who is a member of GE Credit Union in good standing. Existing members will earn $25 for each person that is (a) referred using either the web entry or the form entry as referenced above and that (b) becomes a NEW member of GE Credit Union by opening a NEW membership account AND either a 3Point Checking Account with Direct Deposit OR opens a NEW Loan or Mastercard Credit Card Account for an amount no less than $3,000. There is no limit to the number of people an existing member can refer. There is a maximum limit of 10 "qualified" referrals which result in a Referral Bonus Deposit ("RBD") and there is a maximum Referral Bonus Deposit amount of $250 per existing member household. The limits described above are defined by said person's SSN/TIN and those living/residing in the same household. Any applicable Referral Bonus Deposit amounts granted will be credited to existing members' membership account within 60 days of their referral completing the requirements listed above. Please consult your tax advisor as to the taxability and reporting of these bonus payments. Employees and their families are not eligible. Federally Insured by NCUA.
